Community connections

Bridging Mental Health and Criminal Justice

June 4, 2010, 8:30 am – 4 pm

Delta Chelsea Hotel, Mountbatten Room, 33 Gerrard St. West, Toronto, Ontario

The success of community corrections relies on the extent of the community connections. System responsiveness respectful of diversity, need and capacity provides the foundation for long-term successful community living. The day's renowned presenters will stimulate and engage participants to explore these factors in depth.

Keynote Speaker Dr. Frederick J. Frese III: "Myths, Mountains and Miracles"

Frederick J. Frese, Ph.D. is a psychologist from Ohio who has specialized in the area of schizophrenia for over 40 years. Diagnosed with the condition when he was 25, he has worked tirelessly as a practitioner and advocate for consumers and their families.

George Keiser and Mary Campbell: "Is There a Future for Community Corrections?"

As Chief of Community Corrections Division, National Institute of Corrections (USA), George Keiser oversees services designed to improve pre-trial, probation, parole and community-based corrections programs.

Mary Campbell is the Director General of Corrections and Criminal Justice Directorate, Public Safety Canada. An expert in sentencing, corrections and legislative reform, she has led or participated in all major correctional law reforms at the federal level of Canada since 1985.
